CZECHOSLOVAK DEFENDERS OF PEACE ELECT NEW COMMITTEE

BRATISLAVA KRAJ COMMITTEE OF THE DEFENDERS OF PEACE MEETS -- Bratislava, 'Lud, 7 Jan 53

The Bratislava Kraj Committee of the Defenders of Peace met in plenary session on 6 January. Discussion centered on goals formulated at the Peace Congress held in Vienna in December, and on preparation for the Second Conference of the Czechoslovak Defenders of Peace to be held in Prague on 17 - 18 January 1953

This meeting was called by the president of the KVOM (Kraj Committee of the Defenders of Peace), Andrej Sarvas, chief editor of Czechoslovak Rozhlas (Czechoslovak Radio), who presided. Present at the meeting were: Dr A. Horak, Slovak Commissioner of Communications, member of the World Council of Peace, and president of the Slovak Committee of the Defenders of Peace; Eugen Sochor, composer; Viktor Egry, writer; and outstanding workers in the enterprises and the JRD (Unified Agricultural Cooperatives); as well as representatives of the various groups of the National Front.

The committee stated that more than 200 separate meetings would be held in the kraj before the Second Conference, particularly in the enterprises and the JRD. The meetings will be attended by the delegates elected to the Second Conference.
